APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Since it is the chief business of the church to carry forward the great work projected by her Lord, your Missionary Board regarded with favor the advance movement of our General Conference held in 1890, in instructing an increase of appropriations and recommending an annual assessment of $350,000, but we deplore the fact that the church has not, by more liberal contributions, seconded this wise movement, and that there is a debt of $65,000 to be met. She should no longer be willing to pay $11,620,71 interest on this debt, which could be used to employ an increased force in the missionary field. The whole church should consider well the following statement made by the parent Board at its last session: "Had the church ratified the advance recommended by the General Conference, we should never have heard of the debt, and could have added fifty per cent. to our mission force in the foreign field." We are pleased to note an advance in our collections since 1890, from $251,299.56 to $338,971.94, and would urge that each member of this conference do his best on this collection that, as a conference, we may pay our proportion of the $350,000, which the Parent Board has been authorized by the General Conference to call for.

The Board asks:

First—That each Presiding Elder provide for an anniversary missionary meeting at some time during his district conference.

Second—That each pastor take his collections as early as possible in the conference year, and that he see that our missionary literature is circulated, especially the Methodist Review of Missions and Missionary Hand-book. We suggest this may be done by the Epworth League or some other efficient agency.

Third: That the collections for Home Missions be taken during the first-half of the Conference year and sent to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Missions, and that on the certificate of the Presiding Elder that full and satisfactory work has been done the Treasurer shall distribute to the Conference Missionaries on March the first, 25 per cent. of their respective claims, provided the Treasurer has that amount, if not he shall pay such per cent. as he may have in hand.

Report of the Board of Church Extension.

The demands upon our Board were never greater than now; the importance of the work done by it is beyond doubt or dispute. It is an inestimable part of our system; a strong arm of movement for the success of the church. It is our mission to build or help to build a house of worship for the congregation; the Woman's Parsonage and Home Missions Society to build a house for the preacher; the preacher is sent by those in authority, and we have in these a trinity of forces which will make the whole earth rejoice at their coming, and of these, my brethren, the Church Extension is not the least.

The estimate has been made that about one sixth of the churches erected since the organization of this Board, have been aided by it. Surely then this interest of our church is worthy of your confidence and a more liberal support than hitherto received.

We have this year paid about 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ per cent. of the applications made to us. The assessment in full would, in a very few years, enable us to meet all demands made upon us.

After careful examination and the importance of the places seeking aid, having been considered, the Board made appropriations as follows:

Erlanger, Kenton county, Kentucky	$ 77 25
Caney, Morgan county, Kentucky	50 00
Jackson, Breathett county, Kentucky	100 00
Mt. Carmel, Trimble county, Kentucky	100 00
Burgin, Mercer county, Kentucky	100 00
East Bernstadt, Laurel county, Kentucky	75 00
Preachersville, Lincoln county, Kentucky	100 00
London, Laurel county, Kentucky	150 00
Clay City, Powell county, Kentucky	100 00
Total	$852 25

During the interval of Conference we recommend the following applications to the Parent Board: Eminence, Epworth, Wyatt's, London and Lawrenceburg.

The assessment made upon the Conference for the ensuing year by the Parent Board is $2,880.00, and is apportioned as follows:

Lexington District	$640 00
Shelbyville District	547 00
Covington District	599 00
Maysville District	557 00
Danville District	437 00
Middlesborough District	100 00
Total	$2,880 00

The Parent Board calls attention to the Jubilee year of the M. E. Church, South, in 1894, and desires to commemorate the same by bringing up the collections for Church Extension in full.

May the Kentucky Conference be at the front.

Respectfully submitted.

F. K. STRUVE, Secretary.

George S. Savage, Treasurer, in Account with Kentucky Conference Board of Church Extension.

Report of the Secretary of the Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society of Kentucky Conference, M. E. Church, South.

Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society, Kentucky Conference, has prospered this year, but most effective work has been done when the cause has felt the interest of the pastor. We have fifty societies and twelve hundred members. With the full co-operation of the preachers we could have a society in every charge that would prove a mighty impulse to the church. More money has been raised by the Society this year than ever before.

and the people have been awakened to a knowledge of the aims of Home Missions by the interest that has inspired gifts to our Sue Bennett Memorial School. Of the four thousand five hundred dollars ($4,500.00) raised for the school, much of the credit is due to the untiring zeal of our able President.

Respectfully submitted,

Lexington, Ky.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION TO KENTUCKY ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

We are gratified to report the engagement for this scholastic year of the same excellent corps of teachers that has been retained in our service for years past; namely, D. W. Batson, A. M., Professor of Natural, Mental and Moral Science; W. H. Garrett, Ph B, Professor of Mathematics and French; B. T. Spencer, A. M., Professor of Greek and German; Marvin West, A. M., Professor of Latin and History; W. T. Martin, A. M., Professor of English and Assistant in Mathematics. These gentlemen have won our esteem by continued success in their work and by increased devotion to our educational interests. We could not find more faithful and willing men.

The present term was opened with more than the usual number of students. Among these is a good sized class of young women. The experiment made last year in their admission gave gratifying results.

A summary of financial matters reported by J. W. Proctor, Esq., our treasurer, shows:

The deficit in the current account of $341.39 comes from the failure of some of our investment banks to pay dividends last year, and from a past due rental on the property occupied by the school before the college building was made ready for use. This deficit has been provided for by your board.

In conclusion, we beg leave to offer, for your approval, the following:

Resolved: That all pastors in charge of stations and circuits be instructed to observe as COLLEGE DAY the FIRST SUNDAY in NOVEMBER, and, where more time is found necessary to present the claims of education to the people, that that and succeeding Sundays shall be so employed, until the cause be heard and a collection be taken for it in every congregation, and the collection so taken shall be credited on the assessment made for Kentucky Wesleyan College, and shall be paid over at once to the treasurer of your Board of Education.

Respectfully submitted,

JNO. R. DEERING, Secretary.

Report of the Conference Board of Education.

Your Conference Board of Education beg leave to submit the following report:

All the schools reported to us seem to be in a prosperous and hopeful condition.

The Kentucky Wesleyan, situated at Winchester, had a very prosperous year last year, and this year opens with the largest and best beginning it has ever had in its history. Its prosperity has resulted from solid successful work, from the active canvass made in its behalf, and from the local interest taken in it by the people of Winchester.

Last year the Bible was introduced properly into the curriculum, and also the co-educational feature, both of which has contributed largely to the solidity of its success. The Y. M. C. A. feature is another factor that have served to mould the morals of the school; this, together with the refining and elevating influence of seventeen female students represented in the college this year, aided by a community as free from vices as any in our State, all contribute to make Kentucky Wesleyan unsurpassed for moral and religious training by any educational institution within the bounds of our church.

But the school stands in need of funds in order to enlarge its work. To secure these funds and to keep the school more prominently and continuously before the people we, as your Board, would earnestly endorse and recommend to the Kentucky Conference the educational methods of the Virginia, North Carolina, and North and South Georgia Conferences of our connection.

In these Conferences an annual offering is made by each congregation for the college work of the church, apportioned annually for each charge, just as are missions, church extension and other benevolent offerings.

We recommend that the present session of this Conference provide that an educational offering be henceforth one of the annual Conference collections of every congregation of the Kentucky Conference, and that the Conference be assessed $2,000 for the benefit of Kentucky Wesleyan College. The representative of our collegiate work in the Conference at large should be an educational pastor; his work as a pastorate provided and sustained just as any other pastorate of the Conference. Such a pastor would in due season reach every charge in the Conference, and thus would the educational interests be brought before the 5,000 families of our Conference. Kentucky Wesleyan would then be known as it ought to be, pupils solicited, funds secured, and its work published to the world. We recommend the Faculty of this institution and the appointment of a Visiting Committee to the same.

Millersburg Female College had last year the largest enrollment in its history. The Bible is kept in the course of study. It has a Y. W. C. A., embodying the idea of the W. C. T. U., a Young Women's Missionary Society, and a weekly prayer meeting. We recommend the appointment of a Visiting Committee, and also the appointment of Rev. C. Pope to its Presidency.

Science Hill is opening under very encouraging circumstances. Its enrollment last year was 208. Its teachers are graduates of Eastern colleges, and its aim is to prepare for a higher education, or for life. We recommend the appointment of a Visiting Committee, and also of Rev. W. T. Poynter, D. D., as Principal.

Asbury College had last year 150 enrolled. It turned out its first graduate, 30 or 40 conversions, and the outlook this year reported as more hopeful than ever before. We recommend the appointment of Rev. J. W. Hughes as President, and Revs. A. Redd, J. Wright and W. T. Bolling as Visiting Committee.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. T. J. Dodd, D. D., as President of his Select High School which is in a prosperous condition.

We rejoice to know that in all our schools the religious feature is becoming more and more predominant. Let the good work go on.

We would respectfully request the President of Colleges and the Visiting Committees to the same to give the Board of Education something more than general information concerning the schools. If they have anything of special interest they are welcome to incorporate it briefly in this report.

We would remind the Visiting Committee that we expect them to report anything in the schools under our recognition detrimental to our interests as a church. No such case has yet come under our notice, and we wish to guard against future dangers by saying that we cannot recommend the appointment of a Visiting Committee from year to year, and thus virtually indorse a school, if it is not morally and doctrinally right.

We would also remind the Visiting Committees that it is not enough to attend on Commencement day when everything is primed and prepared. If we as a Conference are to indorse a school we should know that solid honest work is being done and the Committee can only find this out by going at different times when the schools are not on dress parade.

Sunday School Board-

The Sunday School Board reports that during the year it has supplied with Sunday School literature from the Publishing House of the M. E. Church, South, all the needy schools within the bounds of the Conference, that have applied for aid.

It proposes this year, in addition to continuing this work of furnishing supplies to the weak Sunday Schools, to put a small Sunday School library in each such school upon application to the Board, and also to make contributions of our hymn books, or suitable song books, from our Publishing House, to any needy Sunday Schools that may desire the same.

It will be seen from the financial statements below, that the Board has on hand over four hundred dollars. It desires to use this money in the way indicated. To this end it invites the Presiding Elders and pastors to aid in calling the attention of proper Sunday Schools to the offer.

Please make all applications for assistance through the President, and send all monies collected on Childrens' Day to the Treasurer, George B. Jennings, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Report of Committee on Books and Periodicals.

Your committee on Books and Periodicals offer the following report:

The annual report of book agents, referred to the committee, shows a gratifying condition of the house in its business affairs, notwithstanding the depression in financial circles, its publications show all their former excellences, and a positive advance in contents and quality. Its success may be largely increased if our preachers keep it prominently before our people.

Its periodical literature is of the best. The Quarterly Review is easily in the lead of similar publications, and the fact of its being published at a loss is a painful reflection upon the church members, Clerical and Lay. An effort should be made to increase its circulation so as to put it beyond the possibility of failure.

The Christian Advocate retains its reputation. Its editorials, timely, vigorous and fresh. Its correspondence varied and clear. entitles it to a place in every methodist home.

Our Sunday School literature gives what is needed, in help, to a clear understanding of the word, and furnishes both pleasure and profit to young and old.

The Woman's Missionary Advocate and Missionary Reporter, now the Review of Missions, give an excellent medium for diffusion of missionary information and are commended to our people.

The Central Methodist continues its weekly visits to our homes. Its variety and interests lose nothing as the years pass, and as it is better known fills an important place as medium of communication between the patronizing Conferences.

We desire to make kindly mention of the Kentucky Methodist, published by H. C. Morrison & Co., Louisville, Ky.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. CHAMBERLAIN, Chairman.

Report of Committee on Bible Cause.

The committee on Bible Cause begs leave to submit the following:

Believing the Bible to be the inspired word of God, and indispensable in bringing the world to the knowledge of the Truth, we reiterate our former pledges to aid the American Bible Society in its distribution and circulation, and move the adoption of the same resolutions which were passed by this body last year.

Resolved, 1. That we heartily indorse and pledge our support to this institution.

Resolved, 2. That every pastor be requested to bring the claims of the American Bible Society before his people, and take a collection for same the first Sunday in April, or as near that time as possible.

Resolved, 3. That we respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Dr. Geo. S. Savage agent for said society.

We also heartily indorse the expressed desire of the American Bible Society to put "A Bible of its own in the hands of every child who can read."

E. G. B. MANN, Secretary.

Report of Committee on Temperance.

Your committee on Temperance have given the subject due consideration and beg leave to make the following report:

We rejoice at the progress that has been made in creating a sentiment and conscience in favor of prohibition, and are encouraged to believe that all that is necessary to relieve the country of the giant evil of strong drink is a persistent, prudent effort, on the part of all Temperance workers, to create a public sentiment that will prohibit such traffic in human souls.

Resolved: That the Kentucky Conference pledges itself to stand by the deliverances of our last General Conference on this subject, and will sustain each other in all proper efforts to enforce the law of the church on Temperance.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. BOLAND, Chairman.

District Conference Records.

We find in the minutes of the Maysville District Conference unnecessary abridgements in the way of leaving out important connecting words. There is also, evidently, some carelessness as to grammatical expression.

The record of the Lexington District Conference is in good condition, except that the reports of the preachers, and the resolutions passed by the Conference were not recorded.

In the minutes of the Shelbyville District Conference the date is not written in the blank at the top of the page. The record is otherwise correct.

The records of the Danville and the Middlesborough District Conferences were not before the committee.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. WILSON, President Committee.

Report of Committee on Epworth League.

Your committee on Epworth League recognizing that what the church needs is not more machinery but greater power, and that a multiplication of societies is to be deplored; is yet fully persuaded that the General Conference was guided by Divine wisdom in making this one of the institutions of the church. It encourages a study of God's word, organizes our young people for works of charity, fortifies them against the seductive influences of the world, cultivates the gifts of testimony and prayer, and awakens an interest in the doctrines, policy, and history of Methodism.

Comparatively few Leagues have been organized within the Kentucky Conference, but this we think is largely due to a want of appreciation of the utility of the League, and to the impression that it can only be successfully used in stations and in thoroughly organized churches. All necessary information for organizing and equipping leagues can be obtained by correspondence with Rev. W. G. E. Cunningham, Nashville, Tenn.

Resolved: That whenever practicable we will organize Epworth Leagues in our charges, and seek by personal supervision to make them efficient.

G. W. CRUTCHFIELD,	W. T. ROWLAND.

Education of the Colored People.

The following report was adopted:

Your committee on the Education of the Colored People are deeply impressed with the responsibility of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in assisting the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church in America in the work of educating teachers and preachers among their people. This is a cause which should appeal indeed to the heart of every philanthropist. The claims of this race, providentially located in our midst, cannot be ignored unless we disregard the teachings of Christ, and the necessity of preparing them for christian citizenship. Their present usefulness and future happiness are at stake.

On the advice of the College of Bishops no commissioner of education will be in the field until after the next session of the General Conference.

Therefore. Resolved; That in view of the imperative demand we will urge upon our people the payment of the assessment made on our charges for this cause.

W. F. TAYLOR,	E. H. PEARCE,
H. G. HENDERSON.

MEMOIRS.

REV. OSCAR F. DUVALL.

Rev. Oscar F. Duvall was born in Ash County, N. C. January 9th, 1865 and died in Rockcastle County, Ky., October 4th, 1892, of typhoid fever.

He joined the church in his thirteenth year and was converted shortly afterwards. Was licenced to preach September 1880, being fifteen years old.

He served the church as a local preacher until the fall of 1886, when he came to the Kentucky Conference and was admitted as a traveling preacher on trial. During that year he was married to Miss Lizzie Pryor by Rev. D. G. B. Demaree.

The greatest part of his short but useful life was spent in his native land, the mountain district.

His appointments were as follows: Barboursville, Campton, London, West Liberty and Walton

Not having the advantage of a collegiate course, he gathered from nature's commentary the truths that were scattered about him and compiled them into sermons that were eloquent and strong.

He worked under many disadvantages, but with unflinching energy he prosecuted the course of study and came forth approved by his examiners.

He was a preacher without the school, born to his calling. But as the Master said, "A prophet is not without honor save in his own country," so it was with Brother Duvall.

Coming out from the shadows of the Cumberland, he dawned upon the people of Walton as a newly discovered star that burned and sparkled in the galaxy of his calling; and many were the glad hearts that sat under his eloquent appeals to come to Christ, the sinner's best friend.

It was our good fortune to be intimately associated with him this last year of his life, at camp meeting and upon our respective charges, and a more affable spirit we have not known. Preaching the gospel was his highest delight; the meat and drink of his soul.

He flinched not from duty under the most trying circumstances. Six months before his death his little boy, his only boy, was torn from his arms by the ruthless hand of death. This broke up the fountains of his soul. But he laid the little form away in the hope of resurrection, and entered his work with greater zeal to plow the furrow to the end.

A few weeks from this trying ordeal, as he sat in my pulpit ready to preach, a telegram was handed him. It contained information of the death of his father. He arose, preached and plead with sinners, rejoiced in the hope everlasting, and then sat down to weep that the hand that had led him in childhood should never be placed upon his head in blessings again.

Bro. Duvall had a strong and well developed physique, and to all human appearances had the promise of a long and useful life, but God had ordered otherwise. Some weeks before the Conference at Middlesborough he stated to me that he was not feeling well, but laid before me his plans for another year. He did not think that his work was done.

He went to Conference and was taken from there to his mother's home in Rockcastle county where in a few weeks he died in the full triumph of a living faith.

A noble young man in our Israel has fallen. We tender the gray-haired mother, the broken-hearted wife and three fatherless children our deepest sympathy.

W. A. PENN.

REV. B. F. SEDWICK.

Rev. Benjamine Franklin Sedwick was born at Friend's Cone, on the line between Pennsylvania and Maryland, about 1806—as nearly as can be ascertained—the family Bible with its records having been destroyed.

He received preparatory education at Butler Academy, after which he began the study of law. About this time Methodist preachers began preaching there, and he became awakened. After months of distress he joined the Methodist Church, as a seeker of religion. He sought long and earnestly in secret, but not until he came out publicly, and kneeled at the mourner's bench was he relieved. He recorded this fact thus: "Sorrow and fear fled away. I knew I was a child of God converted—born again from above."

"The Spirit answered to the blood
And told me, I was born of God."

This took place in the summer of 1827. He was set to work at once, in social meetings. He was licensed to exhort in July 1829 and to preach in August 1830.

He was placed as a supply on Ridgway Mission, Alleghany District, Pittsburg Conference in the spring of 1833. Was admitted on trial in the same Conference July 1833, as one of a class of twenty-four, among whom were Matthew Simpson, afterwards Bishop, and Dr. Hunter, editor of the Pittsburg Christian Advocate.

Following this act came a long series of years spent in the Master's service, in that wild mountain region, extending through the exciting agitations that culminated in the Division of the Church. After the Division of the Church in 1844 he was transferred from the Pittsburg to the Western Virginia Conference, and at the beginning of the civil war, he was transferred to the Kentucky Conference, and stationed at Cynthiana, where he remained two years, which he declared were the happiest years of his life. There he received the best support he had ever had. After some thirteen years in serving other charges, he was returned to Cynthiana, much to his gratification.

About 1883 he was enrolled on the retired list, and came to Cynthiana to spend the remainder of his long life, with the people he loved; and where in 1881 he had buried his beloved wife, nee Smith. He remained a widower until about three years ago, when he married Mrs. Minerva Garrett, who survives him. His six children all preceeded him to the life beyond.

He passed away into rest, from his residence in Cynthiana on the morning of January 20th 1893 at 7:25 o'clock. Thus passed away the oldest minister in our Conference, except Dr. S. W. Speer, who antedates him one year. His last words on the subject were "I am tired and want to go home."

Some one spoke of his riding out when the weather got warmer, he replied, "I am going to another clime."

We miss his presence with us. Reserved, gentle, pure and lovely—he has gone before us to the rest he craved, to the clime, where harsh winds never blow, into the presence of Him who has declared "Where I am, there shall ye be also"

GEO. S. SAVAGE.

REV. WILLIAM H. ANDERSON.

William H. Anderson, M. D., D. D., was born in Wilmington, North Carolina, September 23, 1817. While yet a boy, his father moved to Richmond, Virginia, amid the scenes of which the character of the subject of this sketch was formed. Of his early boyhood the writer knows but little, never having heard him refer especially to that period of his life, except with reference to his Christian parents, whose memory he revered to the hour of his death. It was easy to detect the impress of a mother's hand and a mother's prayers upon his character.

Dr. Anderson prepared for college at Wilbraham, Mass., and graduated at Middletown, Conn., before he was nineteen years of age. He was licensed to preach in his twentieth year, and was elected to a professorship in Transylvania University at Lexington in his twenty-first year, and was there associated with Drs. Bascom, McGown and others. This same year, 1838, he joined the Kentucky Conference and after his labors in the university filled a number of charges as junior preacher and preacher in charge.

In 1855 he was transferred to the Missouri Conference and put in charge of the St. Charles College. How long he remained in connection with this college is not known, but we find him a short time after this at the head of Central College, Fayette, Missouri. Here he spent, I think, several years of successful work when he was transferred to the Louisville Conference where he filled some of the most important circuits and stations in that Conference, among them the old Brooks Street Church in Louisville, which at that time was, perhaps, the most prominent church in the bounds of the Louisville Conference. He was also for awhile superintendent of the Louisville High School.

In 1876 he was transferred to the Kentucky Conference and elected president of Kentucky Wesleyan College at Millersburg. In the minutes of the Kentucky Conference held at Nicholasville in 1876, I find the following resolution offered by Rev. H. A. M. Henderson and adopted by the Conference:

"WHEREAS, We have received intelligence that W. H. Anderson, D. D., has accepted the presidency of the Kentucky Wesleyan College; therefore,

Resolved, That we welcome him to the Kentucky Conference in the capacity in which he has been called by the Board of Education, and recognize in him an able minister of the gospel, a finished scholar, an experienced teacher, and a genial Christian gentleman, and that we will support him with our hearty co-operation and ardent prayers.

In 1879 he was appointed president of the Brooksville Seminary, then to the Brooksville charge, then to Nicholasville, Carlisle and Shannon and Sardis, closing his labors as Sunday school agent, in which position he labored faithfully till stricken down with lagrippe, culminating in Bright's disease, which after a long and painful illness ended his earthly career in the town of Carlisle, May 2, 1893.

In temperament Dr. Anderson was bright, cheerful and hopeful, never looking upon the dark side of life. The gloom and despondency that so often accompanies old age never came to him. Even amidst the pain and suffering of his long illness, reaching through a year and a half—and his suffering was great—he was ever cheerful and resigned to the will of God. Although his case was a hopeless one to his friends, he hoped against hope, and expected to at least sufficiently recover to be able again to preach the gospel which was his loved employ.

In talking with him one day last winter he said there was a text that had impressed itself upon his mind with peculiar force and he was anxious to preach one more sermon on that text. "And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." He desired to stress the point that the Lord added to the church as against all human methods. His whole life had been spent in her service, and when he could no longer preach and minister at her altars, his church papers were his constant companions while his Bible and Discipline lay within easy reach.

Brother Mann asked him a day or so before he died, what he would do if he had his life to live over again; if he would spend his life in the Methodist ministry. He replied: "Yes! If I had another long life to spend I would spend it preaching Jesus in the the Methodist itineracy. but would try and be more deeply consecrated to my work."

Dr. Anderson was a man of learning and his articles on different subjects adorned the highest literature of his church. His preaching was of a high order and in his palmy days was blessed with large success. He was more than once honored by his Conference to represent it in the General Conference and at one time came within a few votes of being elected bishop, which office would have been safe in his hands.

It was my privilege to be with him frequently during his last illness, and while there was no religious ecstacy, his faith was firmly fixed in Christ and he knew whom he had believed, and that He was able to keep that which he had committed to Him against that day.

He said that his life had been one of trust rather than feeling that he had no fears in regard to the future. He bore his sufferings with a heroism and patience that revealed a strength of character such as we seldom see, and to the very last would suffer no one to do anything for him that he could do himself. He made a long hard fight with death, and only yielded to the grim monster when strength and hope failed. I learned to love him fondly and felt it was a benediction to be with him in his last days. He was greatly beloved by the church and people of Carlisle. He left behind him a host of friends who "name him but to praise." Noble man! He rests from his labors and his works do follow him.

The funeral services were conducted by the writer, by his request, assisted by Brothers James Mann, W. T. Rowland, R. H. Wightman, and the resident pastors of the town, and his mortal remains were taken to Louisville and there laid away with the sleeping dust of dear ones gone before. Sister Anderson and grandson remain at Carlisle among friends, while Dr. William Anderson, the only surviving son, lives at Sardis, Mason county, Kentucky. May they all meet again

LOUISVILLE, KY., September 13, 1893.

To the Kentucky Conference, M. E. Church, South, Maysville, Ky.

GENTLEMEN:

The Treasurer of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Widows' and Orphans' Home, hands in the following report to the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences. This report is full, complete and self-explanatory, containing as it does a Trial Balance, an Inventory, a Statement of the Losses and Gains on all accounts where Losses and Gains can be made, and a statement of Resources and Liabilities.

For a better understanding of this report there is also appended to it a recapitulation of all the Resources and Liabilities. This report is a condensed statement of the result of all transactions that appear on the Ledger from September 1st 1892 to September 1st 1893; September 1st being our Fiscal year.

From this report you will see that the Home has been run at a loss during the year of $81.27. We have, however, still kept up our repairs on the Home, which were begun last year, and have expended this year for repairs $463.27. Had we spent no money for repairs at all we would have quite a handsome profit instead of showing a small net loss.

Very Truly,

ALLEN R. CARTER, Treasurer.
